BUT SOME THINGS CAN BE HARD TO QUANTIFY

“Although my phone call to him was probably frantic and disheveled in nature, he fielded that call with kindness, patience, helpfulness, relatability, non-judgment, and a tremendous amount of knowledge. “I will help you, brother,” he said. And I knew that he meant it.”

“I would have never said out loud what I said to you, and honestly still sugar-coated some things out of embarrassment -- which highlights how hard it is to break through to guys and get them to say what they are experiencing and feeling out loud. It is important for you guys to know and be reminded of the amazing work and organization you are building”

“The SFF is the reason my marriage has stayed intact. Transition is tough, and through their support I got the help I needed, the mentors that guided me, and the opportunities that have allowed me to be successful.”

“The SEAL Future Foundation supported and guided me through my time of uncertainty. While preparing to start a new chapter in my life, the SFF listened and tailored a plan suited to fit my needs. Through their network, resources, and engagements, I found solace in my decision and acted. Thank you SFF.”
